

Join UFF-Seminole Now

If you join right now, you can immediately enjoy the benefits of membership for free. Your first payment will not be due until August.

Those who join the United Faculty of Florida this summer will:

- Send the message to the Board of Trustees that we want our union!
- Make our faculty voice stronger
- Immediately be covered for $1,000,000 in professional liability insurance
- Receive local, state and national publications on higher education issues.
- Save MONEY!

Your dues will not start until the new academic year, but, your membership and all benefits and protections start RIGHT NOW.

Contact UFF-Seminole Membership Coordinator George Bernard for a membership form as soon as possible.

What Will Collective Bargaining at Seminole State Mean?

- √ Legal binding power to have a say and a vote on issues that affect your working conditions
- √ Protection for Academic Freedom
- √ Protection for tenure/continuing contract
- √ A say in development of policies and procedures
- √ Salary and promotion increases
- √ Shared governance
- √ A fair and independent process for enforcing faculty rights

. . . and many more rights and benefits that you have a voice and a vote on.